

A little about us:

Verizon Media, a subsidiary of Verizon, is a values-led company committed to building brands people love. We reach over one billion people globally with a dynamic house of 20+ media and technology brands. A global leader in digital and mobile, Verizon Media is crafting the future of media.

We are an award-winning team of investigative, enterprise, trending and breaking news editors, reporters and producers with a track record of breaking stories that capture national attention. Our platforms reach hundreds of millions of users each month, so when we break news, it has the power to shape the conversation. We also have a laser focus to engage, inform and captivate our mobile audience.

Yahoo Finance, a vertical of Verizon Media, is the top ranked business news platform, with over 108 million monthly active users as of January 2021 -- more than our closest competitors at CNBC, Dow Jones/Wall Street Journal and Business Insider. We consistently rank at or near the top of Comscore ratings by providing quick, incisive and newsworthy takes on the biggest stories of the day in business, economics and finance -- and identifying where those areas intersect with general, entertainment and culture news. A key ingredient to our (highly successful) formula has been to approach EVERY news item as a potential business story, flesh out the right angle, and engage our audience at that level.

As a multimedia journalist, you get to make an impact and have your content resonate with readers across the globe. At Verizon Media, we provide fellows the rare opportunity to engage with over a billion monthly active users.

A Little About You:

We are looking for a savvy reporter with strong writing skills who will join a virtually assembled team of over 30 reporters and editors, who can help us crank out the kinds of stories that set Yahoo Finance apart from the competition.

On any given day, you might be involved in reporting on the Dow dropping by over 500 points; an errant tweet by Tesla's CEO that moves the price of the company's stock; the shares of a little-known company that suddenly skyrockets by 200+ (hello GameStop), or noteworthy trends identified by Wall Street research analysts.

Responsibilities:

- Manage multiple projects effectively.
- You will be central to the Yahoo Finance mission of providing value-added news that separates us from everyone else.
- Writing breaking news and feature stories on interesting trends in business, finance and the economy.
- Help identify coverage areas that are either underreported, or require additional context.
- Attending team meetings where appropriate helping writers and editors and show producers advance story ideas.
- File crisp, concise and well-balanced stories.
- Do the occasional on-air hit, where appropriate.

Qualifications:

- Approximately 3-7 years of professional work experience.
- Experience in business and finance is strongly preferred, but enthusiasm and cleanly written copy are acceptable substitutes.
- Ability to work on stories independently on tight deadlines.
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills.

- Comfort in a fast-paced, innovative technology environment.
